

Royal College of General Practitioners

Patient Partnership in Practice (P³) is the patient working group of the Royal College of General Practitioners (Scotland).

P³ meets four times a year to gather views, develop ideas and lead activities that encourage GPs to work in partnership most effectively with the patients, and to highlight any issues.

P³ is recruiting!

There are currently three vacancies for members on the group.

If you care about the quality of services delivered by GPs and would like the opportunity to respond to primary care developments in Scotland on behalf of patients, please complete the application form attached and return (no later than 18 January 2016) via e-mail to:

Jane Wilson
