VENUE Dunbar Police Station

TIME 19:30 HOURS

DATE OF NEXT MEETING: Thursday 2nd March 2017

Priority	Actions to be Undertaken	Person responsible.
Security of property in Dunbar	In December the Dunpender CC representative reported that numerous East Linton residents are complacent with security – open garages, unlocked bikes on front gardens etc. Posters to be displayed on community notice boards and shops encouraging people to lock up their property. This has been done. Dunbar representative now voicing same concerns so crime prevention initiative to be conducted: posters, media, social media etc	Dunbar Community Policing Team.
Vehicle associated anti social behaviour at Linkfield Car Park, John Muir Country Park.	Takeaway food wrappers etc being thrown from parked cars and same cars reportedly doing “doughnuts” on the grass. Area to be given attention to identify those responsible.	Dunbar Community Policing Team
Youths crossing railway line.	Request that BTP assist by attending, or providing an input to be presented to Dunbar Grammar School assemblies on the dangers of crossing the railway line.	Dunbar Community Policing Team. British Transport Police
