ACTIONS UPDATE AND PROGRESS REPORT.

Priority	Actions to be Undertaken	Person responsible.
Youth issues over the summer school break	Patrols of the known hot spots throughout the summer holidays	Dunbar Community Policing Team ELC Community Wardens
Educational Access Fund	Link in with Dunbar Grammar School to ascertain if funds allocated to the Active Schools Coordinator by Local Area Partnership can be used for diversionary work.	Dunbar Community Policing Team
Obstruction of roadway by East Linton Bridge	Link in with East Lothian Council requesting consideration is given to yellow lines on north side of bridge in East Linton.	Dunbar Community Policing Team

Youth issues over the summer school break:

Noticeable decrease in volume of youth related calls. When possible youth patrols being conducted.

Educational Access Fund

Linked in with DGS staff, request made regarding specific youth given invitation to activities throughout summer holidays. This was already in place and they were checking that the youths I had specified were on the list they had compiled.

Obstruction of roadway by East Linton Bridge

Linked in with Peter Forsyth at ELC, he will initially approach the owners of the Linton Hotel in order to alleviate the issues sooner rather than later, should the problem continue Peter will pursue the lineage option.

Current Policing Issues:

Complaints received about speeding and ASB at Shore Road area. Attention given to youths in cars at car park and speed check conducted, now that travellers in car park area getting further attention.
