Youth issues at Ashfield park

PSP continues. Three meetings have been held since its formation. Police and wardens have been attending the Ashfield Park area every weekend since the formation of the PSP. Over 100 letters have been sent to youths whose details have been noted, there is now a marked decrease in the amount of youths in the area and the volume of related calls to the council or police from members of the public and very little litter being collected.

Pop-up Jim's

Jim and Jemima have arrived. Jim has been deployed and there has been excellent feedback from members of the public observing cars slowing on approach.
