NEWSLETTER SPRING 2021

Welcome to the first newsletter of 2021 from your Dunbar Medical Centre PPG

It is hard to believe we are now one year into the Pandemic. It has been a challenging time for many people particularly front-line staff. The Staff at Dunbar Medical Centre have faced a wide range of changing challenges throughout this period. We would like to thank them all for their professionalism, commitment, dedication and for the long hours they worked to ensure that their Patients were given the highest standard of care during this difficult time. The feedback from the vaccination programme in particular has been really excellent. Well done to you all.

A Celebration - Dr Neil Black celebrates 30 Years in Dunbar with a socially distanced celebration in the Medical centre.

We would like to congratulate Dr Neil Black for achieving 30 years of serving the community at Dunbar Medical Practice. Dr Black has commented: "I'm a fortunate man who enjoys his job because of the people I work with both patients, staff & GP colleagues. Lots of changes over the years, mostly for good. Continuity of good care & timely access to IT are the main things that make primary care great. Loose either one & things deteriorate. Hope we can preserve both.

New GP Dr Jacqueline McKinnon

Dr Jacqueline McKinnon, known as Jacks started as a Salaried GP in December 2020 as a replacement for Dr Beverley Mee who took medical retirement from the partnership after many years with Whitesands Medical Practice. Jacks completed a psychology degree before qualifying as Doctor from Glasgow University in 2012. She then trained as a GP in Tranent and Edinburgh and worked at St Triduana's Medical Practice in Edinburgh before coming to Dunbar. She moved to East Lothian with her family three years ago and enjoys getting the kids out walking in the lovely East Lothian countryside and beaches at the weekends.

Your Local Chemist

Remember your local chemist offers a fabulous service, you may not need to make an appointment with your GP, pharmacists are able to prescribe a range of medication which in turn frees up GP appointments – a member of the PPG recently used this service and received excellent advice and medication, this has freed up a GP appointment space. Thank you to our great local chemists, they do a fantastic job for us in the community.
